PREFACE

I have taken the Cambridge Shakespeare (ed. 1892) as the starting point for my collations, since it contains the most accurate and complete record of the variant readings yet published. My work is entirely supplementary to that of the Cambridge editors.

I have given fuller readings from the first quarto. Sometimes I have noted a reading on account of its own interest; but, in general, these readings record the agreement of the second, third, and fourth quartos with the first quarto, or of the folios with the first quarto. This quarto has furnished Van Dam and Stoffel with some conjectural readings which appear in the following pages.

Readings in the quartos of 1676 and 1703 are recorded when they differ from those of the second, third, and fourth quartos or from each other. I have not had access to the fifth and sixth quartos. The quarto of 1703 is very carelessly printed, and I have often passed over evident misprints therein.

I have endeavored to note all apostrophes used to mark the possessive case, and in variations of 'd and ed in verbs. I have also noted the apostrophe in such words as heav'n, ev'n, etc.

I have tried to note the following forms:

O, th', hether, heaven, &, doth and does, farther and further, hast and haste, hath and has, pause and pawse, then and than, to and too, shew and show.

I have noted parentheses and compounds in the quartos and folios which I have collated, and unusual compounds in other editions. These compounds are marked with a long hyphen.

Whenever punctuation is noted, I try to give all the variations of whatever nature for the particular instance cited. I have aimed to note all exclamation points.

I have noted the place of each scene and the stage directions more fully than the Cambridge editors intended to do, but I have not recorded every variation in spelling or punctuation in these.

The first fifty lines of the text are offered as a specimen of minute collation.

My sincere thanks are due to Professor Demmon for valuable suggestions during the preparation of this thesis.
